

Clearly refreshing without the soy taste.™

SOY₂₀

the evolution of soy™

Soy Isoflavones are the natural active compound in soy which are linked to many health benefits including:

- lowering cholesterol
- reducing the risk of heart disease
- helping to protect against some cancers
- aiding in the prevention of bone loss
- easing menopausal symptoms

Each bottle of soy₂₀™ contains 20mg of natural soy isoflavones - about the same amount as in one serving of soy milk.

soy₂₀™ has all natural flavors and colors, no preservatives and is GMO free.
